

XXVIII SEMANA INTERNACIONAL DE CICLISMO MASTERS-MALLORCA

INTERNATIONAL MASTERS CYCLING WEEK - MALLORCA

REGULATION

The 28th INTERNATIONAL MASTERS CYCLING WEEK consists of the following races:

- October, 14th – 17th: 28th Challenge-Tour of Majorca for Masters.
- October, 19th: 31th European Masters Cup.

ARTICLE 1. In addition to the prizes awarded for each of the events, there will also be TWO GRAND PRIZES, one for each of the races: Master 50 & 60 and Master 30 & 40. These will be awarded to the cyclist who has achieved the highest points classification in the two events of the 28th INTERNATIONAL MASTERS CYCLING WEEK. Participants will be informed prior to the trial.

The Grand Prize consisting of free registration to the 2024 edition and accommodation, under the B&B, in one of the hotels of the organization during the competition days of the next edition.

This Grand Prize will be awarded at the trophy ceremony of the European Masters Cup, which will be held on Sunday, October 19th, at the Alcudia.

ARTICLE 2. Although the category competition system is different for each event, only classifications from the categories MASTER-30, MASTER-40, MASTER-50, MASTER-60 will be taken into account to qualify for the Grand Prize. M-35 competitors will be included in the category M-30 and so on, so that in the case of the European Masters Cup, they will be classified according to the finishing order of each race. The Challenge will be classified according to the position obtained in the overall standings.

ARTICLE 3. The following points will be awarded to the four categories mentioned in Article 2 of these regulations, in accordance with the individual classification obtained. The rider obtaining the highest number of points in the total of the three classifications will be the winner of the Grand Prize. It is important to note that a different points system is used for each event according to its difficulty and prestige.

ARTICLE 4. Should two or more riders draw in the final calculation of the different classifications, the winner of the Grand Prize will be the rider who has obtained the highest classification in his category (M-30, M-40, M-50, M-60) in the final classification of the Challenge Tour of Majorca.

In the unlikely event that this still does not settle the draw, the winner of the Grand Prize will be decided by the total number of points obtained in the classifications for each of the four events in the Challenge Tour of Majorca, in accordance with the table of points set out in Article 3 of these regulations.

NOTE: The organisers are aware of the difficulty of awarding a Grand Prize to a single rider, since the calculation has to take into account completely different events, various categories and a wide age range of riders. Our intention, therefore, is to award the prize to the two riders in the 28th INTERNATIONAL MASTERS CYCLING WEEK who obtain the highest score according to the regulations set out in this document.
